In the event the recipient decides to remain at Edinburgh Campus after Semester 1, the recipient is responsible for any additional tuition fees, living expenses, and associated costs incurred during study abroad. Should the recipient decide to return to Malaysia Campus during Semester 1, the scholarship will be automatically revoked, and the recipient is required to reimburse the University the total amount awarded for tuition fees, living expenses and all other allowances paid.
4. Scholarships are awarded in the form of a tuition fee waiver. "Tuition fee" does not cover any other charges or fees such as registration fee, international student fees, resitting of examination fee, extension of studies fee and ancillary items required as part of the studies, including but not limited to books, graduation ceremony, final award/certificate, accommodation, student visa processing, sports, and living and other related costs, which shall be borne by the scholarship recipient. Living expenses will be provided to the scholarship recipient for AY2025/26 Semester 1 only, prior to their departure for the Edinburgh campus.
5. Scholarship is not exchangeable for cash or other alternatives or transferable to other intake, programme or campuses.
6. The scholarship recipient shall not hold (concurrently) any other full scholarship from external parties. This excludes EPF withdrawals or loans from external financial agencies.

7. Other discounts, waiver or scholarship provided by the University will not apply during the tenure of the scholarship.
8. The scholarship recipient shall contribute by serving as an ambassador for the university during their campus transfer or upon return to Malaysia campus.
9. The scholarship recipient is required to fulfill all necessary requirements and obtain approval for the UK student visa prior to departure.
10. The scholarship recipient is required to comply with all the University terms and conditions of admittance, regulations and policies.
11. The University reserves the right to involve scholarship recipients in interviews, advertisements, photography or other publicity activities for the purpose of promoting the University or any other purpose deemed fit by the University. The scholarship recipient assigns to the University any intellectual property or other rights that are created as part of this role. The scholarship recipient shall also provide the necessary consent to the University to use the personal data of the scholarship recipient for the activities as stated herein. "Personal data" shall be as defined in the Malaysia Personal Data Protection Act 2010, the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the UK Data Protection Act 2018, the Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data (General Data Protection Regulation) (EU GDPR) in so far as it remains applicable, and any other corresponding or equivalent national laws or regulations on in force and applicable.
12. The University reserves the absolute discretion and right to make any amendments to the terms and conditions of the scholarships as reflected herein including but not limited to the structure of the scholarship award, and the scholarship recipients shall be bound by the updated terms and conditions which is available on the University's website.
13. The University reserves the right to revoke the scholarship offered or awarded to students at their absolute discretion at any time. This includes when scholarship recipient discontinues studies (withdrawal from programme) for any reason whatsoever or if, scholarship recipients are found guilty of academic or disciplinary misconduct.
14. The decisions made by the University are final, and there are no avenues, processes or procedures for appeal.
