

Dr Yvonne McLaren-Hankin

I have been a member of Senate for the past three years and am now seeking re-election for a second three year term. I have been a member of staff in Languages & Intercultural Studies (LINCS) for 20 years and consequently have significant experience of many areas within the School and the University. As many of you know, I have recently taken over as Head of LINCS; before that, I held a number of different positions in the Department and the School, including Director of PGT Programmes. I have also served on various School committees, and University committees including Postgraduate Studies Committee and Quality & Standards Committee, as well as review panels across the University, and I am currently a Dean's representative.

I have a very good knowledge of the University, in terms of structures, processes and policies, and I believe I have a very good understanding of the issues that are of most concern to colleagues in SoSS. The University is changing quickly and Senate is a key forum in which our views and concerns can be expressed.
