

Dr Keith Brown

I am a member of EPS academic staff and I teach on the Electrical, Electronic and Computer Engineering programmes. My research interests are in signal processing, intelligent systems and autonomous systems. I would like you to help elect me on to the University Senate where I would help represent the interests of EPS on the University's highest academic body.